ECO-EXPO

"Give the pupils something to do, not something to learn; and the doing is of such a nature as to demand thinking; learning naturally results." This famous quote stands true in the case of school education. Learning is unique, individual, complex and multi-dimensional process. Experiential learning was common phenomena in Indian Ancient Education System. Indian Guru "Rishi-Muni" used to develop knowledge and life skills promoting experiential learning system. Even now in the modern times as well we emphasize on 'learning by doing '. The NEP 2020 is quite visionary, practical and progressive in nature.

Since Brilliants' Convent believes in Well-planned experiential learning activities which are an excellent combination of learning, understanding, doing and reflection.We are constantly striving to make our global citizens learn beyond the textbooks, understand the concepts using reflective thinking approach and be able to apply their knowledge in real life experiences. We impart learning which fosters strategies to make education more accessible to the learners.

Adopting a 360-degree assessment policy for our young learners has become a part of overall development of the students as it includes portfolio assessment, class participation, notebooks, case studies, individual & group activities and project-based assessments etc. We firmly believe in Art integration programme which provides us a platform to integrate sports, arts, music ,dance and computers in curriculum.

Experiential learning is an integration of 5 human senses and experiencing different learning circumstances individually and lively in real life. So, we feel that experiential learning is integration of human values and scientific approach.

Inclusive education and integrated learning is on the top of the cards for BCS.
