"Alone we can do so little, together we can do so much."

It's indeed a great pleasure and pride for BCS Fraternity that one of our student Saanchi Goel of Class XI is engaged whole heartedly in social activities to promote unity, peace and universal brotherhood. She is involved and actively participating in melange of voluntary activities. Besides that she is running an organisation "Young Youth Committee" which works for the welfare of deprived children as well as animals. She not only participates but also took the charge to encourage and facilitate the act and spirit of volunteering by kids across the globe and takes back to back initiatives for spreading Humanity.

She calls for sharing and caring about fellow kids irrespective of one's class, nationality, religion .Some of her highlighted and commendable programs are: Spending quality time with the kids, Conducting informal educational sessions, Playing games and doing other extra-curricular activities. She reaches every nook and corner of neglected students by providing them subjective study material ,E-Newspapers ,current affair content and providing Alert News glimpses on daily basis.

And the most outstanding achievement is the release of her self -written book-"Chords Of Life". The book deals with all Adolescent issues. It's a time when a child undergoes a lot of pressure of relationships, Peer pressure, Pressure of relatives and many more. Book talks about a child mood fluctuations. So keeping in mind all these facts she has tried to put in all issues in the form of Poems. The poems revolve around teen mindset.

She truly deserves to be called as #Desh Ki Beti for her commendable and exceptional work in the field of services.

We are really proud of you!!
